

Student Research Grants for Asian Studies

Made possible through the Asian Arts Initiative of the College of Arts and Letters and the Provost's Research Incentive Program.

- Full-time or part-time students from any college are eligible.
- Undergraduates as well as graduate students are encouraged to apply.
- Examples of appropriate funding include travel expenses, materials, conference fees, food and lodging expenses as well as other research-oriented expenses.
- Amount of awards will vary to a maximum of $2,000 for international travel and $1,000 for domestic travel.

How To Apply:

1. Fill out the Application for Student Research Grants
2. Attach a current transcript
3. Attach a letter of recommendation from a faculty member in the area of your proposed research project. This letter should address the nature and value of the project, describe your role in the project and evaluate your budget request.
4. Attach an abstract of your research project (no more than 700 words) including how this funding will benefit your research.

Turn in your application packet to the Office of the Dean of Arts and Letters, 106 Craig Hall by the following deadline:

Monday, February 2, 2009

Notification of awards will be made by March 1, 2009. For further information please contact Weirong Schaefer, Coordinator of the College of Arts and Letters Asian Arts Initiative.
